The Workshop at Lime Tree Farm

Self-catering at its most chic, the Workshop is a conversion of a Victorian stable, designed by an award winning architect and ideal for couples looking to escape to the Suffolk countryside. Sharp 21st century architecture with a wet room and suspended fire meets classic designs from Arne Jacobsen and Eero Saarinen - complemented by a unique hand-made bed and contemporary kitchen, all set in its own meadow, often complete with sheep! The Workshop has received great reviews so booking early for 2010.

6 Town Steps, Aldeburgh

A classic Georgian cottage in the heart of Aldeburgh, this pretty house sleeps 3 in wonderful period style with an open fire, a made oak bed and bespoke kitchen all just yards from the beach and High Street. In the sitting room there is a large leather sofa and armchair to relax in by the fire, with the kitchen-diner beyond, itself leading on to a pretty south facing courtyard, catching the morning sun. Quintessential Aldeburgh in a every way.
